Micro Effects

A woman with long dark hair, wearing a patterned top and a brown pleated skirt, stands with her back to the camera in an airport terminal. She has a black backpack and is holding a coffee cup. In the background, large digital flight information screens display various flight details in red and white text. The terminal is busy with other travelers, including a couple embracing and people with luggage. Signs for "TO GATE" and "FAST TRACK" are visible in the distance.

The middle ground is filled with a thick canopy of trees. In the background, several layers of rolling hills and mountains are visible, their colors fading into a hazy blue as they recede into the distance. The sky is overcast with soft, grey clouds.
